January 15, 2003

As a financial advisor and author of a book on the subject of charitable giving, I have spent years encouraging people to 'invest' in something beyond themselves. It is vital that giving be not only heart-felt but well-planned. Calvin Edwards' services are crucial on both fronts: he helps donors understand how to best meet the needs that stir their hearts.

Calvin is highly experienced in applying the principles of giving, and in helping others to do so. For those who want to make the most of their charitable giving "investments," I strongly encourage them to work with Calvin Edwards & Company.
