Re: Endorsement for Calvin Edwards

To whom it may concern:

When I received the settlement from my divorce, I was so thankful for God's continuing presence and faithfulness in my life that I wanted to give back to Him. Tithing had been part of my life before, but now I wanted to make strategic, rather than reactive, decisions about my giving.

Calvin Edwards and Company helped me do just that. Calvin helped me discover specific categories of ministries I want to support—those organizations that address issues that consistently tug at my heart. Next, he narrowed down the list of ministries in those categories to a handful of the best for me to choose from.

Then Calvin set up appointments for me and himself to meet with ministry directors whom I would not have met otherwise. The time I spent getting to know these people personally and learning about their ministries firsthand was invaluable. The result? The money God has entrusted to me is now going where I believe He wants it to go.

It's been a pleasure working with Calvin. With his help, I've learned how to make giving decisions not just with my head—but with my heart as well. And the sense of fulfillment I get from giving to ministries I care deeply about is like nothing I've ever experienced. I highly recommend Calvin Edwards and Company.

Sincerely,
